New Students To Enroll

Enrollment of students new to the Tustin Union High School District attendance area, which includes Mission Viejo, Foothill, and Tustin High Schools will take place August 21 through August 31.

All students new to the district are required to first gain permission to enroll at the District Office, 1171 Laguna Road, Tustin. When students and parents report to the District Office, their residence will be checked, they will be assigned to the appropriate school in accordance with established district boundaries, and be provided with the necessary enrollment information to report to that school for class selections and enrollment.

Enrollments at the local schools will take place between the hours of 8 a.m. and noon on the above dates. Counselors will be available during these hours to help plan programs and to discuss goals with both parents and students.

District officials strongly recommend this enrollment prior to the opening of school to insure a maximum opportunity in the selection of elective classes at all schools.

Judge Griffin Speaks to Kiwanis

Judge Charles Griffin, Leisure World resident, was the guest speaker at last week's regular Monday noon meeting of the Saddleback Kiwanis Club of Laguna Hills.

Judge Griffin spoke on the history of the Kiwanis and of the aims and goals of the organization. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Laguna Hills.

LEISURE WORLD'S MINI-BUS — Piloted by everyone from school teachers, to attorneys, the Leisure World mini-bus circles the whole community area takes the residents to many destinations.

The buses, operating under the Physical Properties department of Leisure World, may not circle the globe quite literally, but they make dozens of trips daily from the shopping center, under the tunnel, then around the identifying globe of the Leisure World communities, and on to Manning's Restaurant before re-entering Leisure World.

The drivers actually are former school teachers, attorneys, retired officers, or representatives of any of a dozen other professions and livelihoods, for the personnel to drive the buses are recruited from residents.

The drivers' supervisor, Harry Bruckelmeyer, brings to the job 40 years in transportation—37 of them with Greyhound Lines. Assistant drivers' supervisor is Cecil Powell, and drivers' instructor is Henry Rolfes.

No fee is charged the passengers on the mini-buses which operate from 7 a.m. till 11:30 at night.

Each bus route calls for a one-hour run through the community, visiting the shopping center, the Medical Center, the bank, Manning's restaurant, residential areas and clubhouse. A stop has even been added at the Garden Center when the flashing red light

Historical Documents Displayed in Santa Ana

Documents and other items which figured in the formation and early history of Orange County are now on display in the lobby of First American Title Insurance & Trust Company's Orange County Title Division, Fifth and Main Streets, Santa Ana.

The exhibit, open to the public, was prepared by the firm to commemorate the county's birthday this month, according to Harry L. Paulsen, vice president and manager. Orange County, carved out of Los Angeles County, officially became a separate political entity of August 1, 1889.

At the same time, the county's original two abstract companies, forerunners of First American Title, were providing land information and abstracts of titles for the thriving area. First American is the only title company in the county with the old Los Angeles County land records pertaining to Orange County, Paulsen noted.

On display is the original certificate signed by California Governor R. W. Waterman on March 14, 1889, directing J. W. Towner "of the county of Los Angeles" to perfect the organization of Orange County.

Stanford Club Plans Reunion

Old acquaintances will be renewed and recent arrivals in Orange County will be welcomed at the Stanford Reunion sponsored by the Stanford Club of Orange County on Friday, Aug. 25, from 5:00 to 8:30 p.m. in Balboa Pavilion.

The event will be the first activity of the 1967-68 year for the club which represents more than 2,300 Stanford graduates and former students.

While honoring new alumni in the county, the club will have as its special guest Wilfred Stone, professor of English and former Newport Beach newspaperman. A number of current Stanford students also will attend.

Judge Franklin G. West of Santa Ana heads the hospitality committee which includes Gordon (Tex) White of Corona del Mar and George Baker of Laguna Hills.

John P. Younkin of Tustin, reunion chairman, announced an admission charge of $1.50 will provide hot hors d'oeuvres for the occasion. Telephone reservations may be made with Younkin at OR 5-2000.

Residents of El Toro, Laguna Hills and Mission Viejo are cordially invited to the affair, said Jerrie Aldrich, committee chairman, this week. Cost is $2 per couple and interested parties should contact Aldrich at 837-7934 or Donna Middlestead at 837-5479 for tickets. Herb Leshner is the square dance caller. Hot dogs, coke and coffee will be available at the dance.

CHILDREN CARNIVAL AT MISSION VIEJO HIGH THIS FRIDAY--A carnival for children, ages four and up, is scheduled this Friday, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. by the Mission Viejo Recreation Dept. in conjunction with local teenagers who have been active in structuring the booths and providing prizes and entertainment. A Puppet Show will be shown and refreshments will be served.

NEW BOARD MEMBER TO SAN JOAQUIN SCHOOL BOARD--A new board appointment will be announced at 4 p.m. today at a public meeting to be held in the District Office. The new appointment will replace Captain J.D. Smith, USN, who resigned because of military transfer. Applications for the board appointment closed early today.

FINAL DECISION ON ACCEPTING A $25,000 LANDSCAPING gift to the Tustin Union High School District from the Mission Viejo Co. as not yet been made by the Governing Board of the high school district. Cost to the district for maintenance of the gift is the problem that has caused conflict between board members.

WHICH NINE DO YOU WANT, PAL?--On Aug. 1, the front nine of the Mission Viejo Golf Course became the back nine and the back became the front, according to Head Pro, Ed Wampler. Better utilization was the reason given for the switch.

NEGOTIATIONS COMPLETED — St. George's Episcopal Church marked a milestone last week as final option papers were signed by the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles to purchase a 3 1/2-acre site from the Rossmoor Corp. for a new church. Looking over the site, adjacent to the new El Toro off-ramp being constructed off the Santa Ana freeway, are from left: Ted Cate, people's warden; Mrs. J. Noel Tucker, president of St. George's Episcopal Women; C. Kenneth Hason, bishop's warden; Richard Grossgold, Rossmoor Corp. architect, and Mrs. Ed L. Wilson, church treasurer.

Be Involved in our Community

It's summer, the nights are balmy and its time for some fun! Most of us joined this area because it appeared new, creative and a place "where things just happen."

And things do happen in our area, each day, and each week. The question is, "are you taking part in the fun and activity?" You should. For some old fashion fun why not join the community square dancing which is to be held this Saturday night, from 8 to 11 p.m., in the Parking Lot of the Mount of Olives Lutheran Church located at 24772 Chrisanta Drive, Mission Viejo. Hot dogs and refreshments will be served and a professional square dance caller will be present.

If this activity sounds too strenuous for a summer night there are many other interesting activities going on. According to a "Letter to the Editor" in last week's RANCHO REPORTER parents of children in the Ralph Gates Elementary School are needed to assume leadership positions in the Parent Teachers Organization for the coming year.

The local PTO did a fine job last year of supporting the school and the school needs help again this year. Would the parents of some Gates school children please call Connie Kelly at 837-0914 or Carol Miller at 837-2159 and say you are available.

If Mrs. Kelly or Mrs. Miller doesn't hear from enough of you this newspaper recommends they appoint a committee to pick some desirable candidates for these positions and make a personal visit to these people so they get involved and help where they are needed.

It's summer and its a good time to do things and to get involved. Involved in our community to make it an interesting place that is unusual-unusual because the people in it are unusual. They contribute, they care and they wish to give of themselves.

Warrants

It is frequently surprising to me, as a stockbroker, to find that many long-time investors are not aware of the opportunities in the market. People who have bought and sold stocks and bonds for years are surprised to learn that there are such things as puts, calls, straddles, stop orders, limit orders, warrants and other options. So, this article will be devoted to the subject of stock warrants.

A warrant is defined by the New York Stock Exchange as "a certificate giving the holder the right to purchase securities at a stipulated price within a specified time limit or perpetually." In other words, if you own a warrant, you may, at your option, exchange the warrant and a stipulated amount of money, for a share of stock in the same company.

Why would anyone want to buy a warrant instead of the stock? Well, warrants are traded just as stocks are. They are also, as a rule, more volatile than stocks. The price of warrants generally moves up and down more erratically than stock prices. Obviously then, warrants have a certain attraction for speculators. However, the biggest reason for buying warrants is that they enable you to take a position in a stock at a reduced price because warrants sell at lower prices than the stocks that they represent.

A hypothetical example of a trade in warrants versus a trade in the stock may best serve to illustrate the value of a warrant. XYZ stock closes today at $6 per share. XYZ warrants authorize you to exchange the warrant and $6.25 for a share of the stock. The warrant is selling for $3.25. Now, assume that one year from now, the stock is at $12 per share. It has doubled. At the same time, the warrant should be at about $9, or almost triple its price when we first looked at it. But remember, warrants also go down, just as stocks do, but usually faster. One disadvantage of warrants is that they do not pay dividends. Another is that only a limited number of companies have warrants in addition to their stocks. A third consideration is that many warrants have an expiration date. You do not want to be caught holding a warrant that has expired nor buying one that is about to expire.

Mission Viejo Sales Hit All Time Peak During July

With July sales of Eldorado and La Paz Homes totaling more than $2-1/3 million, Mission Viejo Co. enjoyed the best month in its history, reports General Sales Manager George Jupin.

"Last month," said Jupin, "56 families purchased $1.4 million worth of La Paz Homes and 47 families bought $940,000 worth of Eldorado Homes. As a comparison, our best previous month was in May, 1966, when 70 homes were sold.

"There are two big reasons for the record month," Jupin continued. "First, many families wait until the summer vacation period to buy a home, then are anxious to move in before school starts again.

THE SAN JOAQUIN SCHOOL BOARD will announce its appointment of a fifth member today at a 4 p.m. public meeting in the Board Room of the School Districts Office, located off the San Diego Freeway on San Canyon Drive. The new appointment to the board will be a replacement for Capt. J. D. Smith, USN, who resigned because of being transferred. Pictured above, left to right, at a recent school board meeting are (with back to camera) William D. Stocks, assistant superintendent, Board members Edwin T. McFadden, Jr., and William M. Jeffrey, Jr.; Superintendent of School Ralph A. Gates; Board President W. G. Staples, and Board member Gratian Bidart and recently resigned Board Member Captain J. D. Smith, USN. (Staff PHOTO.)

AA/FUEL DRAGSTER — One of Orange County International Raceway's weekend feature events is a 225 mile per hour AA/Fuel dragster. The tires of these sleek full bodied beauties smoke the entire quarter mile and at night the exhaust spits a fountain of flame about six feet in the air.

'...And The Race Is On!'

Orange County International Raceway opened to large crowds of eager racing fans August 5 on a 120 acre site between El Toro Marine Base and the Santa Ana Freeway.

The entire million dollar facility has been constructed for the spectator and contestant. Even the announcer, Paul Culley, has been placed so he projects a "fans' eye view" of drag racing.

Spectators have been provided with permanent grandstands that give an unobstructed view of the entire course for 8000 fans. From the grandstands the fans receive instantaneous results from an electronic scoreboard that has been designed so well, as new and old drag racing fans can understand it. OCIR has been sanctioned by the National Hot Rod Association that has given the raceway international status.

Every weekend spectators are treated to drag, motorcycle, and sports car racing. Prices for regular Saturday evening drag race events are $2.50 for seats on the spectator side of the track or $3.50 for seats on the pit side. Both tickets include the general admission price of $2.00.

THE RANCHO REPORTER encourages all area residents to take advantage of this new local attraction. Grab the kids, pack a picnic dinner and head over to the Orange County International Raceway for an evening of excitement and thrills, you might become a drag racing fan.

South Coast Plaza Hosts Celebrity Art Exhibit

Miss Inger Stevens' Celebrity Art Exhibit will be hosted by South Coast Plaza Shopping Center in Costa Mesa, August 16 through August 19, 1967.

The Exhibit is touring California in an effort to create greater interest in the problems and needs of the over 500,000 mentally retarded in the State.

All of the fifty art contributions are those personally executed by movie and television, political and religious leaders and many others. Some of the exhibitors are Tony Curtis, Van Johnson, Inger Stevens, Natalie Wood, Jonathan Winters, Howard Keel, Anthony Perkins, Claire Windsor, Dinah Shore, and Eva Marie Saint.

The Exhibit will be open at no charge to the public in the mall at South Coast Plaza from 10:00 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Students To Use OC Floating Lab

Mission Viejo High School, as part of the Tustin Union High School District, will take part in the marine science floating laboratory this fall which is sponsored by the Orange County Schools Office.
